Accreditation and Standards

The Standards and Accreditation Program exists to encourage the ongoing development of high quality public library services in Iowa. In Service to Iowa: Public Library Standards is the manual for the State Library of Iowa's standards program. Iowa's voluntary public library standards program was established to give public libraries a tool to identify strengths and areas for improvement. It is also used to document the condition of public library service in Iowa, to distribute Direct State Aid funding, and to meet statutory requirements.

Accreditation Impacts Related to COVID-19

See a list of Accreditation impacts related to COVID-19. In general, services suspended because of COVID-19 will not affect your accreditation status as long as they are restarted once the crisis has passed. Click on the above link to see a list of Accreditation issues related to the COVID-19.

Accreditation Application for FY22 - application cycle has ended

Public Library Standards

In Service to Iowa, 6th edition is the manual for the State Library Standards and Accreditation Program for public libraries. It documents the condition of public library service in Iowa, determines the formula for State Aid funding, and meets statutory requirements.

The link opens a PDF version of the manual. In Service to Iowa is no longer printed in paper format. This document may be updated on a frequent basis, and was updated on 9/13/2019. Please discard all previous drafts or editions.

17. (Tier 2) The library has a written plan.

... Developing a plan involves the staff, the trustees, and the public. To meet this standard, the plan must ...

- ❑ Address community needs based on community data
- ❑ Be reviewed and updated annually by the library board; an evaluation of the library's progress toward the plan's goals, objectives, and timetable is included in the review
- ❑ Contain a mission statement, which describes the library's purposes in the community
- ❑ Outline goals for administrative and fiscal matters, personnel, collection development, programs and services, public relations, and facilities
- ❑ Show goals to be achieved over a period not to exceed five years with specific, annual actions to achieve the goals

For State Employees

The State Library supports state employees in the important work they do for the public. Reference librarians are available to assist with research, locate and request materials from other libraries around the world, and tracking down information and data. Online resources are available to be used by state employees, and state agencies are able to digitize and archive publications with Iowa Publications Online from the State Library. Find out more about our resources, programs, and services for state employees below.

Online Resources for State Employees

The State Library provides a variety of Online Resources for state employees. Some are available to all online users, while others require a State Library card to access or are only available for use in the Law Library. Browse the State Library catalog, find thousands of documents produced by Iowa state agencies, explore Iowa history and culture with free access to digital collections, and more.

Programs for State Employees

The State Library offers two programs state employees may find helpful:

State Data Center: The State Data Center of Iowa is the source for population, housing, business and government statistics about Iowa, including data from the U.S. Census Bureau, Iowa state agencies, and other state and federal sources. Browse quick facts about Iowa and its counties and cities, read profiles on Iowa's demographic populations, explore and export data, and more. Contact the coordinator with questions on any aspect of Iowa's population.

Iowa Center for the Book: Founded in 2002, the Iowa Center for the Book's mission is to stimulate public interest in books, reading, literacy and libraries. The All Iowa Reads program encourages Iowa adults, teens, and kids to come together in their communities to read and talk about a single book title in the same year.

Profiles

Get an overview of your state, county, or place all in one location with our geo-profile pages. They provide high-level statistics about your area regarding people and population, race and ethnicity, families and living arrangements, health, education, business and economy, employment, housing, and income and poverty. Try searching for your hometown to see what data we have, and don't forget to share or embed the maps and charts. If you have an idea on how to make these pages better, find a bug, or have a question, drop us a line at cedsci.feedback@census.gov.

Demographic Data

PRO

- Does not intrude or depend upon other peoples' schedules
- Helps lay the responsibility of planning upon the board
- Helps with analysis of community and current library activity side-by-side

CON

- No direct "input" (comments) from public
- Without guidance, the data may not be as useful

Methods to develop a plan:

1. Use demographic/census data from the State Data Center
2. Conduct surveys
3. Interview focus groups
4. Ask your district consultant to facilitate “Planning for Results”
5. Hire an outside firm to conduct the process

Surveys

PRO

- Can be a city-wide project (can tie in with other city departments)
- Can be issued electronically (in addition to paper)

CON

- Formulating questions may prove tricky
- Often a low response rate
- Analyzing data may be cumbersome

Methods to develop a plan:

1. Use demographic/census data from the State Data Center
 2. Conduct surveys
 3. Interview focus groups
 4. Ask your district consultant to facilitate “Planning for Results”
 5. Hire an outside firm to conduct the process

Focus Groups

PRO

- Gets actual in-person input
- Offers a chance for the library to be more personal
- Smaller groups are more COVID possible

CON

- Requires designated time of participants
- Requires designated time of staff
- Library may be misconstrued as being too “selective” in who participates

Methods to develop a plan:

1. Use demographic/census data from the State Data Center
 2. Conduct surveys
 3. Interview focus groups
 4. Ask your district consultant to facilitate “Planning for Results”

PFR Service Responses...

What the library does for—or offers to—the public in an effort to meet a defined set of community needs

Chosen service responses should be a logical connection between community needs and interests and how the library fits into that mix – the library's role

The task is to prioritize: what can the library do—and do well—in this planning cycle

Library Service Options (areas of focus)

—what a library can do to help meet the needs and aspirations of the community

1. Civic / Community Engagement
 - o Become an informed citizen
 - o Celebrate diversity; develop cultural awareness
 - o Know your community
 - o Develop citizenship skills
 - o Participate in thoughtful discussions
 - o Research genealogy records and local history information
2. Digital Learning
 - o Connect to the online world and build technology skills
 - o Become "digital literate" (utilize technology for various purposes)
3. Critical Literacies
 - o Create young readers through early childhood literacy
 - o Support adult, teen & family literacy
 - o Succeed in school with homework help
 - o Make informed decisions (health, financial, other life choices)
 - o Become information literate (find, evaluate and use information)
4. Economic Success
 - o Improve business start-ups
 - o Develop job skills (Future Ready Iowa, makerspaces)
 - o Improve resume writing and interviewing
5. Education / Lifelong Learning
 - o Explore topics of personal interest
 - o Gain new knowledge and skills
 - o Engage in group activities
 - o Participate in Summer Reading Programs
 - o Stimulate imagination
 - o Encourage arts & creativity
6. Spaces / Places
 - o Visit a comfortable space
 - o Support networking
 - o Enjoy a safe and welcoming space
 - o Utilize meeting spaces and/or study spaces
 - o Access a user-friendly website
 - o Utilize other virtual spaces
7. Staff Development
 - o Receive service from qualified, professional library staff
 - o Know that library policies and practices are customer driven
 - o Receive answers to questions on a variety of topics

Planning for Results

PRO

- District Consultant does the bulk of the heavy-lifting
- Gets the community involved
- Allows for ample input from community

CON

- Requires designated time of participants
- Requires some work from library to develop the team, arrange space, meal, etc.
- May require more meetings by board (pre-, post-, etc.)

Methods to develop a plan:

1. Use demographic/census data from the State Data Center
 2. Conduct surveys
 3. Interview focus groups
 4. Ask your district consultant to facilitate “Planning for Results”
 5. Hire an outside firm to conduct the process

Why You Should Hire a Strategic Planning Consultant

March 11, 2019 By // by Jan Griffioen 5 Comments

Successful companies understand the benefits of working with a strategic planning consultant who can help them identify the best longer-term opportunities for growth.

An experienced strategy consultant brings a fresh and independent perspective, as well as a proven planning process to support smart decision making about the firm's direction, create a competitive business strategy, and develop a sound strategic plan.

An Experienced Consultant Adds Value

Strategy sessions run by an executive usually turn into staff meetings. The status-quo does not get challenged, and group-think goes unchecked. Sensitive issues are carefully avoided, past failures get swept under the carpet. Organizational weaknesses do not get addressed.

As a result, strategic options are not thoroughly explored. This prevents the firm from identifying new opportunities and reaching its potential. Any business strategy resulting from this process is likely to have flaws.

Outside consultants/firms

PRO

- Professional that only does this type of thing for a living
- Professional-looking results
- May include broader aspects of city planning
- “Independent” facilitator*

CON

- It will cost money
- It may cost a lot of money!

Methods to develop a plan:

- 1 Use demographic/census data from the State Data Center
 - 2 Conduct surveys
 - 3 Interview focus groups
 - 4 Ask your district consultant to facilitate “Planning for Results”
 - 5 Hire an outside firm to conduct the process

ALL ARE FOCUSED ON COMMUNITY DATA/NEEDS!

Questions to answer...

- What are the needs of the community?
- What's the purpose of the library as related to those community needs?
- Where are we now?
- Where do we want to go?
- How will we get there?
- How will we know what we accomplished?

District Consultants

The State Library divides Iowa into six districts in order to provide localized support to libraries. Six district consultants meet regularly with new and established directors, facilitate county meetings, offer regular continuing education programs for directors, staff, and boards. Library Resource Technicians (LRTs) provide each district's librarians with technical support and assistance for state-sponsored resources.
